Registration Guide for AI Track: Focus

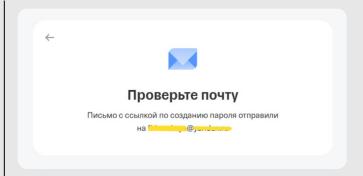

GUIDE

Welcome to the Al Track: Focus course! The course is in English, but for now you need to register on the Russian-language website, so we've prepared some brief instructions for you.

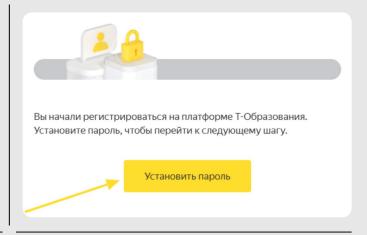

(01) Enter your email.

(02) Check your email.

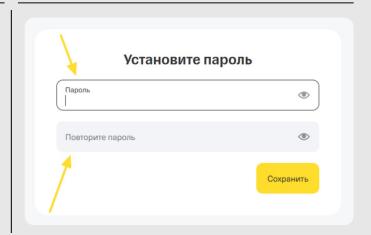

(03) Click the large yellow button.

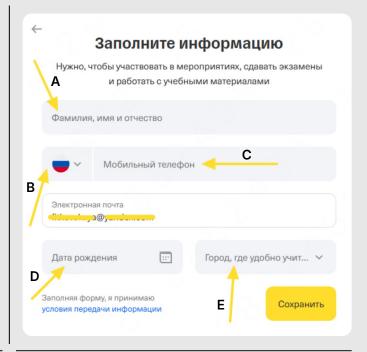

Create a password and enter it twice. Your password must contain at least 1 digit, 1 lowercase letter, and 1 uppercase letter.

Fill in your first and last name using Latin letters (A), select your country's telephone code (B), enter your phone number (C), date of birth (D),
and select the city where you live (E).

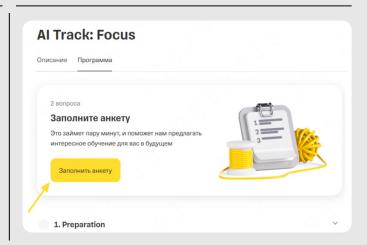

Check box A. This means you agree to the transfer of information.

Next, there will be a short questionnaire; it does not affect anything. You can also check box B to receive marketing emails. Please note that these will be in Russian. This item is optional.

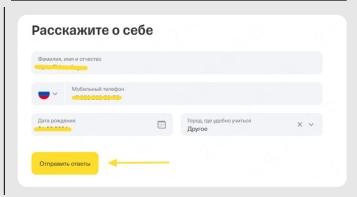

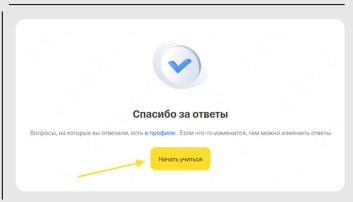

Now you have a personal account.
Follow the link. You will see a large yellow button and the course content.
Click the button.

08 Click the large yellow button once again.

(09) Thank you for your answers!

(10) Enjoy your studies!
